Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 please can you let me know. How many fire safety officers have you employed for each of the last five years? Please see attached How much has this cost the authority in each of the last five years? Please see attached How many fire safety audits have you completed over each of the last five years? Please see attached Of these how many resulted in improvement and enforcement notices? Please see attached Can you narrow those numbers down to properties over four stories or 18m or more (if possible within cost limits, else please ignore)? Four stories would not be a recognised definer for anything legislation wise, 18m is the definition of high rise and those figures are attached. If possible within the cost limits, can you tell me how many buildings have been identified with ACM cladding similar to that used on the Grenfell Tower? How many of them were audited in the last year and how many received improvement or enforcement notices? The actual definition of “cladding similar to” is not possible to define given the vast array of products on the market. The simple answer is that there have 22 buildings identified with cladding or products which require further investigation. Please see below tables
